

Professional Statement

I am a detail-oriented and dedicated professional with strong programming and communication skills, driven by a deep interest in cybersecurity. Guided by my values of integrity, accountability, and collaboration, I strive to help organizations protect their systems and data from emerging threats. Through continuous learning and commitment to excellence, I aim to contribute to building a safer and more secure digital environment.